Subject: RE: UARP - Aquatic TWG meetings

IMPORTANT: Meeting Cancellation Notification

As October has become a very busy period it has become clear that the best use of the Aquatic TWG participants time should result in the cancellation of the October 5 Aquatic TWG meeting. There still remains a possibility that the October 12 meeting will take place and I will inform you of the status of that meeting next week. Please keep the other dates identified on the e-mail below on your calender as we still have technical reports and other items to review and discuss.

> Dear Aquatic/Water Quality/Geomorphology/Hydrology Technical Working Group (TWG) Participants,

> At the last Aquatic TWG meeting a series of upcoming dates for new meetings were established. Some of the meeting dates were specifically established to deal with the study reports on overlapping issues of the UARP and Chili Bar Project. The meeting dates and tentatively agreed to were:

>
> October 5 (Chili Bar/UARP overlapping issues)
> October 12, (Chili Bar/UARP overlapping issues)
> October 28 (Chili Bar/UARP overlapping issues, tentative)
> November 8
> December 6
> December 9

>
> Subsequent to setting these dates, SMUD and PG&E met, as promised, on September 15 to plan for a series of report releases. At that meeting we agreed to the following schedule of report releases and results presentations at the TWG meeting:

> October 5
> Sources of Sediment
> Iowa Hill Turbidity Analysis
> update on Iowa Hill Entrainment
> update on water temperature modeling

> October 12
> Flow and Fluctuation
> Carbon Cycling
> Sedimentation
> Incremental Storage

> Before we could release this proposed schedule of report presentations, SMUD was informed this morning by Beth Paulson that the resource agencies wished to cancel the Aquatic TWG meetings on October 5 and 12. However, given the fact that SMUD/PGE> '> s consultants are prepared to make presentations on the results of these studies, and that PG&E is anxious to have these reports discussed in the TWG meetings to facilitate preparation of their Draft License Application, is it still the desire of the resource agencies to cancel these meetings?

> Please let us know of your interest by this Friday (September 25).>
